CLASSROOM NEWS

3/4K—Mrs. Nelson—We are excited to use our Christmas gifts in our learning and play. Thank you! We visited the front of church today to see the nativity and the Christmas ornaments. And we learned that God put a special star in the sky to lead the Wise Men to Jesus. He gives us the Bible to tell us about Jesus. We added a new verse to “The B-I-B-L-E” song. J-E-S-U-S!

3/4K—Mrs. Zabell—Happy New Year! Thanks once again for all of your generous and thoughtful Christmas gifts. I appreciate them all! Our God’s Word lesson taught us how the wise men traveled to see Jesus. We too, celebrate Epiphany and worship Jesus as our Savior and King. We are enjoying getting back to our routine and had fun with play-doh, shaving cream process art, and recognizing and working with shapes in tangrams.

5K—Mrs. Jammer—Welcome back to school and the 3rd Quarter! Report cards will be sent home on Jan. 11. Looking ahead, we will be needing drivers for our field trip to the Children’s Museum in GB on Friday, Jan. 14. Permission slips came home yesterday. This week’s sight words are: this and do. We have begun ball skills in phy ed and are investigating trees in the season of winter.

1—Mrs. Blum—Welcome back! The first graders are very excited to have our new tables and chairs. They handled them well yesterday and are learning a couple of new routines to help us be successful with them. We have a few classroom needs now in January. We need more #2 pencils and more boxes of Kleenex. If you are able to provide either of those things, please send them to school with your child. Thank you!

2—Mrs. Bakeberg—Happy New Year! I hope you and your family had enjoyable and healthy holidays. The students performed exceptionally at the children’s Christmas service; I was so proud of them! Thank you very much for the Christmas gifts from the whole class and individual gifts. Your thoughtfulness is greatly appreciated. Coming up next week, we have an outdoor field trip on Tuesday at Barkhausen Wildfowl Preserve. Many families need to return the permission slip that was sent home before Christmas. For the field trip, students and chaperones dress for outdoor activities and bring their own cold lunch and drink. Remember that your child needs to be bringing their own water bottle to school each day. They also need to have proper clothing for winter weather.

3— Mrs. Walkley—Thank you so much for all the gifts and treats you gave me this Christmas! Your appreciation is not taken for granted. We are starting the second half of the year by reviewing the expectations and by making goals for the new year. I am excited to see all the learning that happens this quarter! To get us off to a good start, please check with your child if they have all the supplies they need. A few are running low on pencils and erasers, and there’s some who no longer have a full ruler. Thank you and have a great weekend!

4— Mrs. Hepner—Welcome back! I hope you all enjoyed your Christmas break and got plenty of rest. Thank you so much for all the gifts! As we come back to school, please make sure your child is coming with the appropriate snow attire. Let’s start off the 3rd quarter strong and please reach out as we transition with a new teacher in the room.

5 & 6—Mr. Jammer—Welcome back from Christmas break. Hope all had a safe and wonderful Christmas. Thank you for all the Christmas greetings, cards, and gifts!!! Thank you to those parents who donated items for our classroom Christmas party! This new year, 2022, also marks the beginning of the 3rd Quarter. Be looking for your child’s 2nd Quarter report card on Tuesday, January 11.

7 & 8—Mr. Brennan—Welcome back! It may be the start of 2022 but we are halfway through the school year. While January can feel long, we will be busy this month.
